Remixes For Less Cash . Reverend Benn Schipper

Remixes For Less Cash is Reverend Benn Schipper's 2nd album at the independent german electronica label Privatelektro since he joined in 2003. The title of this album is suggesting some sort of committed work and contains pieces of all the last years. But Schipper's musical output it's not just committed in a traditional way in doing a job for compensation. Much more it is a commitment to the natural owner of an artwork – a commitment to an artist. Schipper is always open to expose his work and musical standards in collaborations. These remixes are not done for cash – they're done to proof and manifest the original piece of music in exploring and wrangling it tone by tone, sound by sound thru Schippers serial wave modulation approach.

Influenced by 60's modern serious music ideas and Schipper's musical roots in late 80's east german punk and experimental electronica. Simply it is a very calm, ambient scape with evil psycho thrillic glitches, sometimes nervous noisy beat powered soundtrack of a fictive movie.

These collection of 10 titles contains remixes of the german straight-edge band Lebensreform, samples of the swiss label Everest Records and remixes of a early collaborations with label mate Tilman Schmidt. Like the rainbow color in the backside of the mostly black/white style hand stamped copy style cover Reverend Benn Schipper's work is showcasing an artificial chameleons nature. The artwork underlines the ironic and distant post-post-punk attitude. The complete individual, customized and, handmade 12 Page Booklet comes with 10 colors (CMYK + Lapis Blue, Sun Burst, Cardinal, Chocolate, Jade, Gold (Glitter) additional equipped with temporarily tattoos and play money.
